- (10) Cri.Misc.Application No.7606/99
As decided on 17.12.99

#. A point of controversy is raised that the police filed the FIR in question and registered case because bills and invoice as mentioned in the FIR was not shown to the police.

#. In para 3 of the petition it is clearly stated that the petitioner had shown relevant documents to the police officer concerned. It is not understood that why the petitioner would not show the bills and invoices to the police officer, if they possess the same and have produced the same in this court. Therefore especially when these documents would save the petitioner from predicament ensuing the reasons mentioned in the FIR for registering offences are ex facie improbable.

#. While directing the quashing of FIR and proceeding in pursuance of the said FIR so far as the muddamal is concerned the following order is passed.

(1) The muddamal i.e. gur seized from the truck in the above said FIR in question be released to the petitioner no.3 on giving his undertaking to the court of Magistrate concerned, that the goods shall not be stored or used or consumed in Gujarat State territory and will be taken to its destination, out of the limit of the State of Gujarat.

(2) The petitioner shall carry goods in question under the police squad to be given by the police authority at the cost of the petitioner till the limit of State of Gujarat.

(3) Truck bearing Register No. MP 37 H 0001 shall be released in favour of petitioner no.1 after appropriate verification.

#. Rule is made absolute to that extent. Direct Service is permitted.

#. While parting with this judgement it is observed that a dismayed and very serious state of affairs is noticed that as many as 10 repeated applications have been decided by this High Court as mentioned above, even then repeatedly the complaints are being filed by the police in clear defiance of the ratio laid down in above decisions. In the result this attitude of the police make the parties rush to the court ultimately contributing to the docket explosion. Not only that but it clearly appears that the authority of the Law of the land is not followed. For these reasons the copy of this judgement be immediately served upon the Secretary Home Department, State of Gujarat and Inspector General of Police, State of Gujarat for doing needful in the matter. Within one month of receipt of this judgment the Secretary Home Department and the Inspector General of Police shall file compliance of the needful action taken by them to this court.
